MOVING TOWARD MATURITY – ASSESSING OUR SPIRITUAL GROWTH
Psalm 139:23–24 - Search me, O God, and know my heart! Try me and know my thoughts! And see if there be any grievous way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting! (ESV)
Ephesians 5:15–17 - Look carefully then how you walk, not as unwise but as wise, making the best use of the time, because the days are evil. Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. (ESV)
ABIDE IN CHRIST <ol style="list-style-type: none"> I practice a regular quiet time and look forward to that time with Christ. When making choices, I seek Christ’s guidance first. My relationship with Christ is motivated more by love than duty or fear. I experience life change as a result of my worship experiences. When God makes me aware of His specific will in an area of my life, I follow His leading. I believe Christ provides the only way for a relationship with God. My actions demonstrate a desire to build God’s kingdom rather than my own. Peace, contentment, and joy characterize my life rather than worry and anxiety. I trust Christ to help me through any problem or crisis I face. I remain confident of God’s love and provision during difficult times.

FAMILY DEVOTIONAL GUIDE
This week’s Family Devotional Guide is based on Psalm 146, our Scripture reading for Sunday, July 10. Day 1 Scripture Reading: Psalm 146:1-2 Discussion: This section opens with a command. While the first “Praise the Lord” could be the psalmist exhorting God’s people, the second command is mostly likely the psalmist commanding himself, “Praise the Lord, O my soul!” What does this tell us of the need to worship, as well as its importance? Discuss the psalmist’s intention to praise God as long as the psalmist lives. What lessons do we learn from this commitment? Song: “I’ll Praise My Maker While I’ve Breath” by Isaac Watts Day 2 Scripture Reading: Psalm 146:3-4 Discussion: In this section, the psalmist points his attention to earthly leaders and instructs us not to put trust in princes. Praise (v. 1-2) and trust (v. 3) are closely connected. As we worship the Lord, we declare our trust in Him, whether explicitly or implicitly. So, how does worshiping God inform how we should respond to other leaders? Discuss the issue of ultimate allegiance in the Christian life. Song: “Living Hope” by Brian Johnson & Phil Wickham Day 3 Scripture Reading: Psalm 146:5-10 Discussion: The psalmist states in verse five that a person is blessed when God is his help (in other words, when the Lord is His God and source of strength). Discuss why the man who relies on the Lord and His strength is truly blessed. Spend some time discussing vv. 6-9, focusing on all the things the Lord does. How does this section of the psalm point us to Jesus? Finally, spend some time thanking the Lord for His rule and reign and praise Him for the fact that His kingdom will never end! Song: “Your Great Name” by Krissy Nordhoff & Michael Neale

BIBLICAL COUNSELING
   Life can be difficult at times. There are seasons when we just wish that we had someone to help us through those difficult times. Here at Tabernacle, we believe that God’s Word has an answer for all of life’s problems. II Peter 1:3 states, “His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence”. If you find yourself in one of these seasons, please see Pastor Jon or go to our website to sign up for an appointment. You will also find paperwork that helps the counselor get to know you a bit before you arrive. The paperwork can be downloaded, completed, then emailed, or it can be printed at your convenience, completed, and brought to the church office. Problems with life are not a new thing. We all have them; you are not alone. Let Tabernacle come alongside you with the Bible to ease the pain and bring hope and help from God’s perspective.
CHILDREN’S MINISTRY MEETING
